Telephone number: 798 280 844

III. Purposes and grounds for processing personal data

We process your personal data for:

1. to carry out correspondence in writing, via email and telephone calls to the extent that this is necessary for the handling of your application or request; the legal basis for the processing of personal data in this regard is Article 6(1)(f) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data and repealing Directive 95/46/EC ("GDPR"), i.e. our legitimate interest;
2. the establishment or assertion of possible claims or the defence against such claims by the Controller; the legal basis for the processing of personal data in this regard is Article 6(1)(f) GDPR, i.e. our legitimate interest.

IV. Recipients of data

We will transfer your personal data to our employees and associates and to entities providing services to us, such as:

- (i) providers of IT systems, IT and telecommunications services,
- (ii) postal operators and couriers,
- (iii) entities providing document archiving and destruction services,
- (iv) to other contractors with whom we do business or whose services we use, if this is necessary to process your request or application.

Your personal data may also be communicated to authorised authorities to the extent required by applicable law.

V. Transfer of data to a third country

We will not transfer your personal data outside the European Union or to international organisations.

VI. Data retention period

We will process your personal data for the duration of the handling of your request or application. The period of processing of your personal data may be extended each time by the period of limitation of claims, if the processing of your personal data is necessary for the Administrator to assert or defend against possible claims.

VII. Your rights

In relation to the processing of your personal data, you are entitled under the GDPR and under the conditions set out therein:

1. The right to access and receive a copy of your data;
2. The right to rectification (correction) of your data;
3. The right to erasure - if you believe that there are no grounds for us to process your data, you can request that we erase it;
4. Right to request restriction of processing - you have the right to request restriction of processing if:
 - a) we have inaccurate data about you (for a period of time to allow us to check the accuracy of the data) or
 - b) we process your data unlawfully, but you do not want us to delete it or
 - c) we no longer need your data for the purposes of the processing, but you need them in order to establish, assert or defend your claims, or
 - d) you raise an objection based on your particular situation to our processing of your data based on legitimate interests for purposes other than direct marketing (until we determine whether our legitimate interests override the grounds for your objection);

If processing is restricted, then we will only be able to process your data, with the exception of storage, with your consent or in order to establish, assert or defend claims or to protect the rights of another natural or legal person.

5. Right to object to processing - you have the right to object on grounds relating to your particular situation to the processing of your data where we process it on the basis of legitimate interests for purposes other than direct marketing (in which case, if you demonstrate your particular situation, we will cease processing your data for that purpose unless we demonstrate the existence of valid legitimate grounds for processing overriding your interests, rights and freedoms or grounds for establishing, asserting or defending claims);
6. The right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority - if you believe that we are processing your data unlawfully, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority (the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection).

If you wish to exercise your rights, please contact us at the address shown above.

VIII. Information on whether the data are required or voluntary

Your provision of personal data is voluntary, but failure to do so will result in the impossibility of handling your application or request. Failure to provide your contact details (e-mail address, telephone number, mailing address) may make this form of contact impossible.

IX. Automated processing and profiling of data

We do not make decisions about you by automated means or based on profiling.
